A Gentle Note To You

Some things are not meant to be spoken out loud.

They move quietly between two people, soft threads holding memories, moments, and all the small truths we rarely name.

This album was born from that silence, not to teach, not to guide, but simply to keep safe a little of your light.

Brighter Than Fear holds the embrace you deserve when doubts speak too loudly.

Backpack on My Shoulder carries the freedom of early journeys, your laughter in motion, your eyes on the world.

The Quiet Sky remembers how you stood between study and sky, still growing, still searching, still rising.

The Rare Kind is the truth I see in you, a gentleness that is strength, a way of shining all your own.

The Wave Inside is the rhythm you learn each day, not chasing life but moving with it.

Drive Through the Light is the dream of a journey we will share before you step into the world ahead.

Through the Air is the breath you take when you move freely in the circles that hold your grace.

And Made of Light and Dreams is the part of you, you have not fully met yet, but one day will,
a quiet brightness, a heart wide open, a dream that walks.

This album does not tell you where to go.
It only says this,
whatever path you choose,
I have seen the beauty you carry, and you will carry it everywhere.

There are two important days in a life,
the day you are born,
and the day you discover why.

Until that second day arrives and long after it comes these songs will stay with you quiet and warm, like a small light you can keep in your pocket whenever the world feels too big.

Brighter Than Fear

Insecurities whisper
But you
You are louder
The world tells you to shine like fireworks
But fireworks fade
Boom
Gone
Empty sky

You don't need to burn out
You need to glow
Glow steady
Glow true
Glow like the light you already carry inside
It's the quiet spark that stays lit
It's the breath that steadies you
It's the laughter that refuses to fade
It's the hand that holds you
When you fall

My little girl
My little genius
There will always be someone
Ready to lift you
Every time you need
I promise you
I see the hours you give
The weight you carry
The climb you face
To finish this path
To chase a dream
That waits beyond these borders

And you will make it
Because I believe in you
More than anyone ever could
You don't need to be flawless
You don't need to be perfect
You just need to be yourself
And what's true for you
Is already enough

Every dream you hold
You can reach
Step by step
Fall and rise
Again and again
Because you are stronger than doubt
Stronger than silence
And brighter than fear

My little girl
My little genius
Brighter
Than fear

Backpack on My Shoulder

Trains are rushing away
Open windows on my soul
A dive into blue from the highest stone
Youth burning fast in a single day

Backpack on my shoulder heart so light
Under romantic moons and fragile skies
To travel is to know the world outside
But even more to find out who I am inside

Midnight escapes stolen silence
Eyes that speak without a word
Different cultures foreign smiles
Awkward passion in fleeting trials

Backpack on my shoulder heart so light
Under romantic moons and fragile skies
To travel is to know the world outside
But even more to find out who I am inside

And there remains a gentle melancholy
Like a star that refuses to fade away
Youth runs ahead too far to hold
Yet it lives forever in memories gold

Backpack on my shoulder heart so light
Through rushing trains and leaps in the night
To travel is to know the world outside
But even more to find out who I am inside

The Quiet Sky

You build it slips away
Castles melting chalk in the rain
Around you laughter without depth
Faces of glass voices chasing noise
They don't deserve your fire

The quiet sky waits for you
The quiet sky waits for you
The quiet sky waits for you
The quiet sky waits for you

Some chase the glitter never the gold Shadows of stories already told
But you are a river steady and wide
Carving a path no storm can hide

They call it youth but it feels like a circus
Bright lights loud songs nothing with purpose
Everyone running for the next distraction
Fast games fast love no true reaction

But you hold a fire they can't define
A steady glow an ancient sign
You walk through the noise your silence strong
A rhythm that beats where the lost belong

The quiet sky waits for you
The quiet sky waits for you
The quiet sky waits for you
The quiet sky waits for you

One day the dawn will rise unplanned
A hand will find your waiting hand
Not with thunder but soft and true
A sunrise written only for you

This moment of your life is a shifting tide
Restless waves but also wide
You are the horizon still becoming
The quiet sky after the storm
Trust your strangeness trust your depth
You are not alone Not ever

The quiet sky waits for you
The quiet sky waits for you

The Rare Kind

They say love's everywhere
But mirrors don't care
Freedom they say I call it fear

Heart on screen tap twice gone
Midnight talk new face move on Fast touch no truth inside
Every forever dies online

They don't wait they scroll through names
Love's a clip not a flame
I'm not made for half a try
I fall slow that's how I fly
No mask no rush no show
I still feel what they don't know
Cool maybe real no
I keep faith when the currents go

They run for sparks
I wait for fire they call it love
I call it higher not just a line not just a vibe
I'm the rare kind I'm the rare kind
I'm the rare kind I'm the rare kind

I still believe in time While the world runs blind
I move slow but I shine I'm the rare kind
I don't fake the climb Real hearts take time

Neon noise talk too loud
Every I love you lost in crowd
Hashtag hearts dopamine plays
Same old lines in modern ways
I want slow hands honest eyes
Not a spark that quickly dies
You call it strange I call it true
I don't rush what I pursue
They fade fast I hold tight
I dream deep in sleepless nights

Still rare still mine Still beating out of line

Somewhere there's a rhythm that waits
Not now but it's real
I walk slow Through noise and neon
Still rare Still kind

I'm the rare kind Still here still kind
Not the quick kind Not the blind

I'm the rare kind
Not made for rush or rewind
Still rare
Still kind

And that's enough for now

The Wave Inside

The wave don't roar it listens
It moves slow inside the distance
I ran with light till it burned my hands
Called it truth called it where I stand
Every flame just a borrowed high
But I keep moving don't ask why
Then came quiet not an end just a sound
A pulse in the air that turned me around

Ride the wave inside
Let it take let it slide
Up and down I'm still alive
I don't chase I ride
Ride the wave inside
Let it take let it slide
Up and down I'm still alive
I don't chase I ride

The body bends before it breaks
The mind learns calm through ache
Every fall's a deeper dive
I lose control I come alive
No perfection just motion
No crown no devotion
Freedom's not to own or plan
It moves in an open hand

Ride the wave inside
Let it take let it slide
Up and down I'm still alive
I don't chase I ride
Ride the wave inside
Let it take let it slide
Up and down I'm still alive

Still water moves
Still I move with it
Still water moves
Still I move with it

With it

Drive Through the Light

It's our last week
No map no sleep
The world feels wide
And the sky breathes deep

Touchdown sun skyline gold
Laughs in motion stories unfold
Wind on my face pulse on fire
Every mile pulls us higher
No rule no end in sight
Waves in motion pure and bright

You look ahead I watch the glow
Roads like ribbons start to flow
Glass and sand horizon burns
We don't turn back the world turns
No need to hide
We ride the line
Every second shines
The present re aligns

We drive through the light
Hearts open wide
No limit no night
Just fire inside
Vegas glows the stars collide
We're free we're kind
We drive through the light

Suite on top city below
Mirror glass and silver glow
Laughter spills through velvet skies
I see tomorrow in your eyes
You move with grace no need to prove
The world keeps pace we never lose
Dreams align the lines ignite
Two souls awake alive tonight

Don't tell me this will fade
It won't it just transforms
Promise it will stay
Always in every form

We drive through the light
Hearts open wide
The sun won't fade the dream won't die
We laugh we shine we fly
Drive through the light

One more sunrise
And the world begins again

Through the Air

Breathe in
Time slows down
The circle moves
I leave the ground
Metal gleam caught by light
Gravity bends I rise in flight
Spin through silence feel the sound
Air pulls up I leave the ground
Balance breaks then finds its line
Motion moves where soul aligns

Focus burns I fade I glow
Still in rhythm still I flow
Every spin a vow
Every fall a prayer
The world keeps turning
I'm still there

Through the air
I lose control
Weightless heart
Unfolds the soul
Every breath becomes a flare
Through the air I'm there
Still rising
Still aware

Strength in grace I hold I bend
Edges blur beginnings blend
Every sway defines the space
Every pause rewrites the pace
Hands remember eyes release
Chaos moving into peace

Body sings what words can't share
Through the rhythm I repair
No need to win no need to hide
The balance lives on either side
Every motion breaks the frame
I return but never the same

Through the air
I lose control
Weightless heart
Unfolds the soul
Every breath becomes a flare
Through the air I'm there
Still rising
Still aware

Still rising
Still aware
Still turning
Still learning
Still here

Made of Light and Dreams

They told me to shine in silence
To see beyond the noise
To touch the world with kindness
And let it find its voice

They said I move like dawn Gentle and strong
That my eyes hold stories Of worlds that don't belong
I used to doubt But now I see
There's something rare That lives in me
They told me courage can be soft
And love can sound like art That power isn't loud
It's knowing your own heart

I'm made of light and dreams
Stronger than it seems
Every step a spark in motion
A quiet heart a wild ocean

I'm made of light and dreams Learning what it means
I rise I fall I gleam Made of light and dreams

They said I build I break I heal
I love what others fear to feel
That time bends when I create
And grace can stand in place of hate
Not made to blend not made to hide
I walk the edge with open eyes
They called me rare
And maybe they're right
I bloom slow but I burn bright

They said don't rush your rise
Truth takes time
Don't dim your light just to fit the line
Dreams ain't fast they grow in pain
You learn the sun comes after rain
So I breathe I build I climb
Slow steps full mind
I'm not lost I'm aligned
Rare by choice not defined

They told me I was made for more
That kindness is a kind of war
And maybe they were right
Cause I'm still here
Still rare Still kind

I'm made of light and dreams
Brighter than it seems
A melody between extremes
Made of light and dreams
I rise I fall I gleam
Made of light and dreams

And wherever I go I'll carry this glow
